

COMMUNIQUÉ

Re : OB 2927/11 Riviere Du Rempart

On 9 March 2016, the Commissioner of Police submitted to this Office the complete enquiry into the case bearing the above reference in connection with an alleged conspiracy to do an unlawful act.

The enquiry has revealed that the persons involved in this alleged conspiracy were (1) Mr Doomeswarsing Gooljaury; (2) Dr. Navinchandra Ramgoolam; (3) Mr Premnathsing Jokhoo; and (4) Mr Rampersad Soorojebally.

After careful consideration of the facts and circumstances as revealed by the enquiry, the Commissioner of Police has been advised as follows:

- (a) That Mr Doomeswarsing Gooljaury be prosecuted for the offence of Effecting Public Mischief, in breach of Section 298 of the Criminal Code; and
- (b) That Dr. Navinchandra Ramgoolam and Messrs Premnathsing Jokhoo and Rampersad Soorojebally be prosecuted together for the offence of Conspiracy to do an unlawful act, namely effecting public mischief in breach of Section 109 of the Criminal Code (Supplementary) Act coupled with Section 298 of the Criminal Code.

The Commissioner of Police has further been advised to lodge the case against Mr Doomeswarsing Gooljaury first and after disposal of the case against him, to proceed with the prosecution of the case against Dr. Navinchandra Ramgoolam and Messrs. Premnathsing Jokhoo and Rampersad Soorojebally and to call Mr Doomeswarsing Gooljaury as witness for the prosecution.
