

OPPORTUNITIES

Opportunities exist for practicing barristers to be appointed as prosecuting counsel.

Responsibilities:

They are required to carry out criminal prosecutions before the District and Intermediate Courts upon the instructions of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Prosecuting Counsel will be expected to:

- a) appear in Courts thrice weekly; and
- b) deal with a minimum of 15 cases per week (5 per day).

The engagement will be strictly on a periodic and retainer fee on a flat rate basis with travelling allowance.

Interested practicing barristers should address their letter of interest to this Office through the email dpp@govmu.org

Recruitment will be done on an ad hoc basis as and when vacancies arise.
