

Piracy

The DPP met Mr Thomas Winkler, ambassador of Denmark, in the context of the fight against piracy. The ambassador expressed his satisfaction on measures adopted by the ODPP for the transfer of pirates from UNVAFOR to Mauritian jurisdiction. Mr Winkler formally invited the DPP to form part of a regional meeting with DPPs from Seychelles and Kenya who have already prosecuted cases of pirates with a view to reaching a common approach for the transfer of prisoners and also to share difficulties encountered in the prosecution of cases.
